CODING CONTEST BY DEPARTMENT OF CS &IT :

Department of CSE & IT organized an Intradepartmental Coding Competition among the students of B.Tech. CSE, AIADS, ICB, and MCA from 20th September to 23rd September 2022 at Smart Class Room.

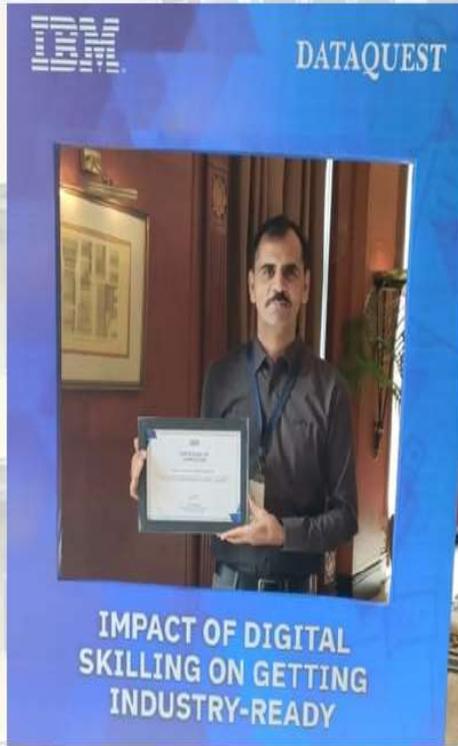

The contest comprised of 3 rounds, where the coding quiz was organized on the first day. 5-5 students from each branch were selected and a team was formed separately of 3rd and 5th semester students. Then, a coding challenge was conducted in the second round in which 4 Senior and 4 Junior teams were shortlisted. In the third and final round, a team of junior students and a team of senior students were declared winners by a fastest-finger first contest. Junior Winning Team members were Dhananjay Donge, Aman Rajput, Ankit Sharma, Anukriti Jain, and Adarsh Babele. The senior winning team members were Atul, Aman Dubey, Aman Sharma, Riya, and Pratham.

Head of the Department Dr. Kanak Saxena and Dean Academic Dr. Jetendra Parashar honored both the winning teams by presenting trophies. Speaking on the occasion, Dr. Kanak Saxena said that such events not only increase the spirit of competition among the students but also enhance their technical skills. This will prove to be helpful in taking their career to the peak of success. The competition was coordinated by Dr. Sunil Joshi and Dr. Sandeep Raghuwanshi.

Our honorable Director Dr. R. K. Pandit congratulated the organizers for the technical coding competition and wished the winning students a bright future.

• Dr. Sandeep Raghuwanshi bagged a recognition award from IBM India. Dr. Sandeep Raghuwanshi became one of the two faculty members across the country who has successfully completed two consecutive cohorts for Build-a-Thon Program (Data Analytics and Applied Data Science). Dr. Sandeep Raghuwanshi was invited as a speaker in the felicitation program and to start institute-industry collaboration at New Delhi. This collaboration will open new opportunities for the institute students and faculty members.

Under MOU, PTRI and Institute has organised a one day workshop on road safety issues for students on 29-09-2022
