19. Examinees desirous of leaving the examination hall temporarily shall be permitted to do so for a maximum period of five minutes. The absence shall be recorded and if the examinee fails to return within this limit of five minutes, he/she shall not be permitted to enter the examination hall, unless he/she gives convincing explanation.

20. A candidate found talking during the examination hours shall be warned not to do so. If the candidate continues talking in spite of the warning by the invigilator, the answer book of the examinee shall be withdrawn and a second answer book supplied. Only the second answer book shall be sent for evaluation. The first answer book shall be cancelled and sent to the Controller Exam by the Superintendent.
21. The Superintendent of Examination Centre shall take action against the Examinee who is found using or attempting to use unfair means in the examination hall or within the premises of the Examination Centre during the hours of examination, in the following manners:
- 21.1 The examinee shall be called upon to surrender all the objectionable material found in his/her possession including answer book and the memorandum shall be prepared with date and time.
- 21.2 The statement of the examinee and the invigilator shall be recorded.
- 21.3 The examinee shall be issued a fresh answer-book marked 'Duplicate-Using Unfair Means' to attempt answers within the remaining time prescribed for the examination.
- 21.4 All the material so collected and the entire evidence along with the statement of the examinee and the answer-book duly initialed shall be forwarded to the Exam Controller by name in a separate confidential sealed registered packet marked "Unfair Means" along with the observations of Superintendent.
- 21.5 The materials so collected from the examinee together with both the answer-books, Viz., the answer-book collected while using unfair means and other supplied afterward will be sent to the Examiner by the Controller Exam for assessing both the answer book separately and to report if the examinee has actually used unfair means in view of the material collected.
- 21.6 The cases of the use of unfair means at the examination as reported by the center superintendent along with the report of the examiner shall be examined by a Committee to be appointed by the Executive Council every year.

The committee shall consist of :-

- 21.6.1 One member of the Executive Council, one of the Deans of Faculties, and one teacher who is the member of Academic Council nominated by the Executive Council.
- 21.6.2 One student who in the academic session immediately preceding was member of any Board of Study, nominated by the Kulpati.
- 21.6.3 Controller of Examinations.

The Executive Council shall appoint one of the members included under (21.6.1) to be the Chairman of the Committee.

- 21.7 The Committee shall after examining the cases, decide the action to be taken in each case and report to the Executive Council with all cases of the use of unfair means together with the decision of the Committee.
- 22.1 Where a candidate applies for the revaluation, the answer-book in which revaluation is sought, will be sent for revaluation by the Kulpati to two examiners (other than the one who initially valued it) at least one of whom shall be from a place outside the territorial jurisdiction of the University. A copy of the memorandum of instructions for the guidance of examiners, if prepared by the paper setter, will be sent to each of the two examiners to enable them to evaluate the answer-book concerned in the light of the standards set by the examiner in the memorandum of instructions. Each of the two examiners shall receive a remuneration for the revaluation of an answer-book as prescribed by the University.

*22.2 If the marks awarded in the paper by any of the two examiners vary from the marks given by the original examiner by more than 10% of the maximum marks in the paper, the average of the marks awarded by two of the examiners, amongst the original examiner and two revaluers which are nearest to each other, will be taken to represent “correct valuation”. This average of marks will be awarded to the candidate for the revision of his/her results.

Provided that subject to the condition that at least one of the variations from the original marks is more than 10% of the maximum marks in the paper, if the difference in marks allotted by the first examiner and the original examiner is equal to the difference in marks allotted by the second examiner and the original examiner, that difference of marks shall be taken into account for arriving at the correct valuation which is to the best advantage of the candidate.

Provided further that if the original marks obtained by the student are reduced on revaluation, it shall not be taken into accounts.

23. Keeping in views the jurisdiction of the University of whole Madhya Pradesh and to conduct the examination smoothly, the Executive Council may, on the recommendation of the Kulpati establish the NODEL CENTRE/ NODEL CENTRES at any college for conduct of examination. The NODEL CENTRE will work on behalf of the University with the rules and regulations abided by the Act, Statute and Ordinances. The center will be responsible for the conduct of examination and to coordinate the work relating to examinations, evaluation and tabulation as may be assigned from time to time by the University. The Coordinator of the center will be appointed by the University and will normally be of the rank of a Principal/Professor in the institution.
